Egyptian Archaeology semester - Journaal

It is that time of the year again: the Cairo Semester for Egyptology students started 28 October and last until 22 December. A large group of enthusiastic MA students, 17 in total, will be taught all ins and outs of Egypt and of archaeology in the field. Besides visiting sites, the students will develop own research, based on the collection in the Egyptian Museum. Attending the First International Chariot Conference on 1 and 2 December is also part of the programme this year. A diary is kept at our website. >>Read more
