News February 2014

A word from our Director

We are now about one and a half month into the new year. This year we had to start with a very difficult decision: we had to cancel the Cairo semesters that were due to take place at our institute for our Dutch and Flemish students of Arabic/Islam and Egyptology/Archeology. Read more >>

A month full of books

At the end of January, the annual Cairo International Book Fair took place in Nasr City. Our library team collected some of the best books for our library with the great help of one of our teachers and book enthusiast Adel Abdel Moneim. At this year's Book Fair edition we mostly focused on Arabic literature, political history, gender studies and sociology. You are most welcome to discover this new part of our collection.
