Academy Building and Faculty Club

For some it has been exactly four years, but for most it has been a bit longer: your days as a student in Leiden. It goes without saying that you have spent a lot of time at Rapenburg and surroundings. What could be more appropriate than to celebrate your graduation with drinks in one of Leiden University's most impressive locations: the Faculty Club in the Academy Building. The Faculty Club was established specially for the university community and alumni, and is a unique and historic location within Leiden University.

It is the ideal location to raise a glass together with your family and friends and toast a successful degree.
