

Program
Rethinking Contact Induced Change Conference
Leiden, 9-10-11 June 2011

Thursday, June 9

	8.30-9.15	Registration at the Lipsius building
Plenary	9.30-10.30	Keynote lecture by Robert Nicolai
	10.30-11.00	Coffee break
Plenary	11.00-11:30	Jeff Siegel: Two types of functional transfer in language contact
	11.30-12.00	Peter Bakker: Pidgins as precursors for creoles
	12.00-12.30	Martin Ehala: Tolerance to variation and analogy are the key forces driving contact induced change
	12.30-14.00	Lunch at the Arsenaal building
Parallel (1)	14.00-14.30	Petr Zima: Inducement or Interplay?
	14.30-15.00	Eugenie Stapert and Bethwyn Evans: Rethinking motivations of contact-induced change: Evidence from Siberia and Papua New Guinea
	15.00-15.30	Anthony Grant: Contact, shift, maintenance and genocide: Different realisations of the effects of contact-induced change in the North Pacific
Parallel (2)	14.00-14.30	Carole de Féral: Social factors, deliberate and non-deliberate changes in two "contact languages" (Cameroon)
	14.30-15.00	Nelia Alexandre, Rita Gonçalves and Tjerk Hagemeijer: PP-relativization in African Varieties of Portuguese: Between contact and convergent change
	15.00-15.30	Simanique Moody: The role of structural differences in the outcomes of African American English in contact with Gullah-Geechee in Southeast Georgia
	15.30-16.00	Coffee break

Plenary	16.00-16.30	Felicity Meakins and Carmel O'Shannessy: Typological constraints on verb integration in two Australian mixed languages
	16.30-17.00	Mathias Jenny and Åshild Næss: Who changes language? Bilingualism and structural borrowing in Burma and the Reef Islands
	17.00	Brill Reception

Friday, June 10

Plenary	9.00-10.00	Keynote lecture by Malcolm Ross
	10.00-10.30	Coffee break
	10.30-11.00	Stefan Pfaender: Bilingual bridges: Perceived similarity and the emergence of contact languages
	11.00-11.30	Christopher Lucas: What, if anything, is the stability gradient?
	11.30-12.00	Wolfgang Wölck: Internal chain shift versus external contact: The Northern Cities shift revisited
Plenary	12.00-12.30	Short poster presentations
	12.30-14.00	Lunch & poster viewing
Plenary	14.00-14.30	Francesco Gardani: Borrowing inherent vs contextual inflection
	14.30-15.00	Maarten Kossmann: On inflectional borrowing
	15.00-15.30	Brigitte Pakendorf: How does a language become mixed? Investigating the processes leading to paradigm copying in an Even dialect
	15.30-16.00	Bart Jacobs: Embedding Papiamentu in the mixed languages debate
	16.00-16.30	Coffee break
Plenary	16.30-17.30	Keynote lecture by Don Winford
	17.30	Conference Dinner

Saturday, June 11

Plenary	9.30-10.00	Penelope Gardner-Chloros and Jenny Cheshire: Contact-induced change in monolingual and bilingual speech
	10.00-10.30	Isabelle Léglise and Bettina Migge: Towards a comprehensive approach to studying synchronic language contact
	10.30-11.00	Coffee break
Parallel (1)	11.00-11.30	Remco Knooihuizen: Reconstructing language shift-induced transfer: Preaspiration in peripheral Scottish varieties
	11.30-12.00	Jacomine Nortier and Margreet Dorleijn: Multi-ethnolects: relating social factors to linguistic outcomes
	12.00-12.30	Fida Bizri: Impact of input-output interaction in language acquisition strategies: Data from migrant communities in the Middle East
Parallel (2)	11.00-11.30	Sebastian Nordhoff: Dialect levelling, substrate reinforcement, and metatypy in the history of Sri Lanka Malay
	11.30-12.00	Aline da Cruz: The emergence of number agreement in Nheengatú
Plenary	12.30-13.00	Closing session by Maarten Mous