

Cultures of Anatomical Collections

Leiden University, 15-17 February 2012

I would like to attend the conference on the following days:

- Wednesday 15 February
- Thursday 16 February
- Friday 17 February

I pay a conference fee of:

- €100 (students and aio's)
- €150

NB: the conference fee includes all lunches, an Indonesian buffet on Wednesday evening and the conference dinner on Thursday. It is also possible to join us for dinner and drinks on Friday evening. You can sign up for this and pay (+/- €35) upon arrival.

Dietary wishes and other remarks:

Name:

Affiliation:

Email:

Please return the form to: conference@culturesofcollecting.nl

Payments can be made available to:

Universiteit Leiden / Geesteswetenschappen

Bank: Rabobank

Address bank: Schipholweg 105, 2316 XC Leiden (NL)

Account number 1020.54.266

BIC: RABONL2U

IBAN: NL74RABO0102054266

With you payment please mention: "sapnummer 1575 208 611"

Accommodation:

A number of hotels in the centre of Leiden still have rooms available from 15 – 18 February.
We recommend you to book soon.

Hotel Nieuw Minerva

<http://www.nieuwminerva.nl/index.htm>

From 78 euro's p.p.p.n.

Hotel Rembrandt

<http://www.rembrandthotel.nl/site/home-nl/>

From 85 euro's p.p.p.n.

Tulip Inn

<http://www.goldentulipleidencentre.nl>

From 134 euro's p.p.p.n.

If you cannot find a hotel to your liking in Leiden, you could also look for a hotel in The Hague (Den Haag) near the central train station on a website like booking.com or tripadvisor.com. Trains from The Hague to Leiden run up to six times per hour from 5am till midnight. The journey takes 20 minutes; a day return costs 6,20 euros. Students may like to know that unlike Leiden, The Hague also has youth hostels. These can be found through hostelbookers.com.