

Summer School in Bilingual Education

NEW: Summer School in Bilingual Education & Cambridge International Certificate in Teaching for Bilingual Education 15 – 19 August 2011

Summer School in Bilingual Education

The third edition of the successful ICLON Summer School in Bilingual Education offers teachers from bilingual and international schools a unique opportunity for professional development. During one week of intensive collaboration, participants will expand and deepen the skills and knowledge they need to teach effectively in bilingual education and to stimulate content and language integrated learning (CLIL). The Summer School awards an ICLON Summer School certificate and, additionally, in 2011 will allow participants to obtain the new Cambridge International Certificate in Teaching for Bilingual Education.

The Cambridge International Certificate

ICLON (Leiden University) is one of the three official centres offering the Cambridge International Certificate in Teaching for Bilingual Education, a new professional qualification designed for teachers who wish to develop knowledge, understanding and skills in this area.

I loved the experiences of sharing and exchanging ideas with a wonderful group of dedicated teachers.

Assignment for the Cambridge Certificate

The Summer School is specially designed to allow participants to meet the requirements for the Certificate. The final assignment for the Certificate, which will be externally assessed by Cambridge International Examinations (CIE), consists of a 3000 word essay covering a number of practical tasks. Some follow-up work will be necessary to complete the essay; after the Summer School, candidates will receive individual online feedback by ICLON tutors.

Target group

Teachers currently working in English bilingual or international education.

I feel inspired and energized to expand the way I do my work... a refreshing and very useful experience! I know that my students, my colleagues and I will benefit from my time spent here.
